

Department of English

SHRI GOVIND GURU UNIVERSITY,
VINZOL-GODHRA

About the Department

- The Department of English became functional in the academic year 2020-21. It is noteworthy to mention that the department has taken concrete steps in implementing the vision of NEP 2020 in curriculum frameworks.
- While instilling keen interests in literary investigations, the department also promotes interdisciplinarity, as per the guidelines of NEP 2020, cutting across the varied disciplines to cultivate a broad understanding and innovative problem-solving skills among students.
- The department has a unique language laboratory which can bolster the linguistic competence of the students and offer opportunities to utilize ICT tools for research and other academic activities. It has got a dedicated library with a rich collection of literary and non-literary texts, magazines, scholarly journals, and E-books.
- The department also boasts of its state-of-the-art infrastructure catering to all the academic needs of the students. The students also benefit from the department's placement assistance, coaching of NET and GSET examinations, and other relevant academic events. Further, the department has got a required number of dedicated faculty members who perform their academic duties sincerely.
- The department recognizes the rich heritage and traditions of the tribal communities and accordingly lays more emphasis on tribal literature and comparative studies of other indigenous and aboriginal literature.
