O. LL.B. 15. Grading:

The marks obtained at the End Term University Examination and in sixth semester Marks of the Clinical Papers as well as viva voce will then be graded as per details provided in a prescribed Table – 1 in the R. LL.B.- 3. From the First semester onwards, the total performance within a semester starting from the first semester are indicated respectively by Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA). These two are calculated by the following formulae :

where ‘Ci’ is the Credit earned for the Course i in any semester; ‘Gi’ is the Grade Point obtained by the student for the Course i and ‘n’ is the number of Courses passed in that semester.

CGPA = GPA of all the Courses starting from the first semester to the current semester. These two are calculated by the following formulae:

$$\text{SGPA} = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^n C_i G_i}{\sum_{i=1}^n C_i}$$

Where ‘Ci’ is the Credit earned for the course I in any semester ‘Gi’ is the Grade point obtained by the students for the Course I and ‘n’ is the number of Course passed in that semester.

CGPA = Average of SGPA of all the Courses starting from the first semester to the current semester.

Note : The SGPA and CGPA shall be calculated separately for the following three parts :

Part - I=Soft Skill

Part – II= FCs and

Part-III = CCs, ECs.

O. LL.B. 16. Classification of Final Results:

I. For each of the three parts, there shall be separate classification on the basis of SGPA.

II. For purposes of declaring a candidate to have qualified for the Degree of Bachelor of Law in the First class / Second class / Pass class or First class with Distinction, the marks and the corresponding CGPA earned by the candidate in Part III alone will be the criterion provided he/she has secured the prescribed passing minimum in Part I and Part II. It is further provided that the candidate should have scored the First / Second Class separately in both the grand total and end Semester (External) examination. The grades for each course would be decided on the basis of the percentage marks obtained in the end-semester external and internal examinations as per Table – 1 in R. LL.B. – 3. Table 2 at R. LL.B. - 3 prescribes the method of counting of total CGP in each semester.

O. LL.B. 17. Conferment of the Bachelor’s Degree:

(i) A candidate shall be eligible for the conferment of the Degree of Bachelor of Law only if he/she has earned the minimum required credits for the programme prescribed therefor (i.e. 120 credits excluding Foundation and Soft Skill Courses and 144 credits in total) after having successfully cleared/passed all the six semesters.

O. LL.B. 18. :

(i) The University shall conduct the End Semester Examination for all the courses including Foundation and Soft Skill Courses in all the six semesters. However, the examination of only clinical papers shall be conducted as per the mandatory requirements prescribed by the Shri Govind Guru University as well as the Legal Education Rules, 2008.

(ii) The examination fees for End Term University Examination of each semester will be decided by the University and the University shall have liberty to increase the same from time to time.

O. LL.B. 19. Grievance Redressal Committee :

The College shall form a Grievance Redressal Committee for each course in each department with the Course Teacher and the HOD as the members. This Committee shall solve all grievances relating to the Internal Assessment marks of the students and decision of the grievance Redressal Committee shall be final.

O. LL.B. 20. Revision of Ordinances, Regulations and Curriculum:

The University may through its various academic bodies revise, amend or change the Ordinances, Regulations and the Curriculum if found necessary by the members of Joint Board of Studies in law in the interest of enhancement of the quality of legal education from time to time or upon issuance of the circulars, norms or the rules framed by the Bar Council of India or equivalent Statutory Body from time to time.
